

Christian Peace Education Fund

Charity No: 326266

Report of the work of the Fund 2020

Despite the many challenges of 2020, the work of the CPEF has continued.

The trustees meet to consider grant applications and receive financial reports from the administrator. They also hear about Pax Christi's peace education work from Aisling Griffin, and in 2020 gave £10,000 towards this work.

The trustees managed to meet together in person in March before coronavirus restrictions came into place. After that they remained in communication via email and met on zoom in November.

In spite of the strange year, it's heartening to see the range of peace education work going on and the trustees are very happy to be able to support this work. If you know of any project or group that would benefit from a grant please do get in touch and spread the word!

A brief outline of income and expenditure is given overleaf.

Examples of projects funded in 2020:

- £800 was granted to Michael Mears to enable schools, which might otherwise not be able to, to host his play 'The Mistake'. The play explores the topic of nuclear weapons through the story of the atomic bombing of Hiroshima in 1945.

- A grant of £422 was awarded to Pax Christi to support an International Woman's Day event. Together with London Catholic Worker, they hosted Kate Hennessy, Dorothy Day's granddaughter, talking about her memories, and her book The World will be Saved by Beauty—about the lives of her grandmother and mother.
- £1000 to CND to support their work commemorating the 75th anniversary of the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.
- £3038 to Pax Christi and Valerie Flessati to enable the continuation of the PAX Archives Project. The PAX Archives are the archives of the Catholic peace movement which amalgamated with Pax Christi in 1971. These valuable documents are being prepared for long term storage, preservation, and access for scholars.
